SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Captain Joseph E. Willard, who mo-tored up to "Royal Orchard," the Scott's beautiful country place in Al-bemarle, with a party of young people last week, are expected in Richmond to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have been building a new home on their farm, and it will not be finished until late summer. About August | Mr. and Mrs. Scott and children expect to open the house, and a great many delightful parties have been planned during their Mallory-Butterworth.

A wedding of much interest through-out Southside Virginia was celebrated Wednesday morning, June 18, at o'clock at Boydton, when Miss Eva Butterworth was married to Dr. James Baugh Mallory, of Lawrenceville. The ceremony took place at the home of lightful affair. Mrs. J. Y. McCorkle in pink charmeuse trimmed with pearls and lace, and carried pink carnations.

J. M. Barner, W. B. Butterworth and Mrs. H. K. Butterworth, all of Butterworth, Mrs. R. E. Blackwell, M'ss Janace Blackwell, of Roanoke; Rev. J. E. Rowe, of Louisa; T. R. Freeman, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mallory, Dr. Frank Mallory, Miss Grace Mallory and Mrs. W. T. Siedze, of Lawrenceville, Henry Ligon, of McKenney; Haines Ligon, Frank Ligon, Miss Ester Ligon and Miss Nellie Ligon, of Clarkstille, Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings, of Lawrenceville, and Gafford Pleasants, of South Hill.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for an extended Northern trip, and on their return will be at home in Lawrenceville.

Miss Lawrence Unable to Speak Here. Miss Lawrence, of the Industrial School in the Blue Ridge Mountains, who was to make a talk on her work in this city tonday; usuable to come of the bride's mother on June 18, who was to make a talk on her work in this city tonday; usuable to come of the bride's mother on June 18, dependent ments as M. Barner, W. B. Butterworth and Pupils' Recital.
rs. H. K. Butterworth, all of ButterThe ninth and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John ing department.

Milton Robles, at the Casey Hotel.

Scranton, Penn. Mrs. Robles before Mr. and Mrs. F

Meeting at Soldiers' Home. dren's Chapter, Auxiliary No. 1, to the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters R. H. Cooke, in Newport News. of the Confederacy, took place last Fr the old soldiers were present, and interesting to the children Miss Frances Heindl won the to friends here. writing the best essay on

Tea was served in the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon Woman's Club yesterday afternoon as to see the company of the company o club during the early summer months are always informal, and very charming affairs for the members still in town. The tea table was arranged with pink roses. Bridge Party at the Beach, The initial series of

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND The Dunlop Mills Richmond Va:

The House of Fashion

Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Women's Summer Gowns at Reduced Prices

Special Desk Offer

We have a limited quantity of $-foot Standing Desks, in solid oak, at the special price $15.00 net.

Sydnor & Hundley

risyers—the fisest made, at

Call and get acquainted with

Kodak Department. Will be pleased to answer any and all questions.

Same Quality Every Day. PURITY ICE (REAM Monroe 1861.

Extraordinary Reductions on

WAISTS $1.98 $1.50 were $3 and $4. were $2 and $3.50.

85 beautiful sheer lingerie summer clearance, including the season's smartest styles, of voile batiste and marquisettes, high, Dutch and V-neck models, trimmed with dainty laces and embroideries. Sizes, 34 to 44. Very exceptional values.

Basement. Maufmann & Go

and Mrs. John of New York, and Mrs. Franklin President Taft as his last official act, F. Butterworth, Rev R. B. Scott officiating. The drawing-room was beautifully decorated with pink carnations, highest score. After the game, supper carried in the measure were legalized, ferns and lighted candles. The bride was served at the tables. Among subject to the rider, which says that ten up prior to the examination, thus wore a tailored suit of blue cloth those registered at "The Virginia" are none of the funds shall be used for aiding certain teachers who were apwith a hat to match, and carried a Miss Edith Stavis, of Philadelphia; the prosecution of labor unions or plying for certificates. An affidavit of valley. The bride's only attendant Mrs. J. Y. McCorkle, Hazen Chase, E. farmers' organizations. was her sister, Miss Maud Butterworth, W. Meore, R. G. Smith, William Stuart, of honor, who was gowned Franklin Stearnes and Mr. Leslie, in pink charmeuse frimmed with pear is and lace, and carried pink carnations. The Wedding march was played by the bride's sister. Miss Lily Butterworth, who were yellow chiffon over nations. Besides the immediate family of the bride and groom, there were prosent a host of friends. Among those present from a distance were prosent a host of friends. Among those present from a distance were Beck, Dr. and Mrs. John Beck, Fred. W. Beck, Dr. and Mrs. Ivan W. McDowell, J. M. Barner, W. B. Butterworth and J. M. Barner, W. B. Butterworth

Northern trip, and on their return will be at home in Lawrenceville.

Miss Lawrence Unable to Speak Here.
Miss Lawrence, of the Industrial School in the Blue Ridge Mountains, who was to make a talk on her work in this city to-day, is unable to come to Richmond. She will probably make an address here later.

Moss Midded Elizabeth Lees, daughters, daying the department with abundant funds to enforce the law. The law will be interpreted, in the determination of what the department should do, by indicating the department sho address here later.

Isiting in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Rowe is connected with the R. F. and P. and W. S. Railroad in the audit-marriage was Miss Genevieve left for a short stay in New York City. Later they will spend the summer in the Adirondacks.

Mrs. N. C. Cooke is the guest of Mrs.

Mrs. Taylor Burke, of Alexandria, is spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. Landon R. Mason.

Sunday, after a brief visit

Stonewall Jackson, and Miss Annie Miss Cornelia T. Cooke is spending Crump received a pin for having the several days with her cousin, Miss Anond best essay written on the same nette Boswell, in Newport News.

burg, spent several days here last week.

Mrs. Claude Dean and son will spend the summer months at Goshen

Mrs. R. A. Patterson and Miss Elizaheth Patterson are spending the sum-mer in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Valentine have gone to Mount Elliott Springs for a few days. From there they will go to the Warm Springs for a month.

Miss Kitty Lancaster is the guest of Miss Mary Ball in Westhampton.

Miss Virginia Crockett, of "Edgewater," Norfolk, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles G. Bosher.

Lieutenant Philip H. Bagby, United States Army, left last night for Get-tysburg, where he has been detailed for duty in connection with the Gettysburg celebration.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

North Carolina Man Is Fatally Wound-

dby Son-In-Law.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 23.—

James Pratt, who lives near Stoneville, Rockingham County, was shot by his son-in-law, Tom Cardwell, with a pistol Sunday morning, the ball entering the abdomen and perforating the intestines. The attending physician states that the wound will prove fatal. fatal.

The particulars of the shooting are meagre. It is said that Cardwell was at the home of Pratt, and was trying to sell a pistol to another man, who fired it five times at a mark and missed each time. He handed the pistol back to Cardwell, with the remark that it was no good, and Cardwell said he would show him how to hit with it. Cardwell says that he undertook to break the weapon to empty the cylinder, and that it fired accidentally. The ball passed through the clothing on the shoulder of a boy who was stand-ing in front of Mr. Pratt and struck

Primary Winner Named.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., June 23.—Congressman Carlin to-day recommended to Postmaster Burleson the name of Eugene Monroe to be postmaster at Purcellville, Va. Not long ago, as it became apparent that no one could be named for this place who would be satisfactory to all the patrons of the Purcellville office, Mr. Carlin agreed to submit the matter to a primary and let all adult patrons vote. This was done, and out of about 600 ballots cast Mr. Monroe received a majority of ten, hence his name has been sent to the Post-Office Department as the next postmaster at Purcellville.

PRESIDENT SIGNS SUNDRY CIVIL BILL

Appropriations of $116,000,000 Carried by It Thus Legalized.

EXPLAINS HIS ACTION

Sorry It Was Impossible to Separate Item as to Antitrust Prosecutions.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, June 23 .- President Wilson to-night signed the sundry civil appropriation bill, vetoed by

In signing the bill, the President issued the following statement: "I have signed this bill because I tion which is, in my opinion, unjusti-flable in character and principle. But I could not separate it. I do not understand that the limitation was in-tended as either an amendment or an interpretation of the antitrust law, but merely as an expression of the opinion of the Congress—a very emphatic opinion, backed by an overwhelming majority of the House of Representatives and a large majority of the Senate, but not intended to touch anything but the expenditure of a size length.

BOARD TAKES UP PATRICK COUNTY SCHOOL SCANDAL

(Continued From First Page.) while he was visiting the school. Mr Via admits having had the pistol, say-

Mrs. Richard Alvey and Miss Byrd Alvey left yesterday to spend several days for the spending.

Rev. R. C. Gilmore, of Fredericksburg, spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Levering and children, of Baltimore, are spending several days at the Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Langley, of Sanford, Fla., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Bosher, on South Third Street.

Morson Keith has returned to Richmond from the University of Virginia.

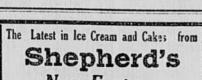

Maxwell Waddey, who graduated at Virginia Military Institute last week, has returned to his home here.

Mrs. Claude Dean and son will spend.

Mrs.

New Factory 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

AT ALL GROCERS.

Monday Sale of Men's Hot Weather Underwear

Men's 50c Conde's Mesh inderwear; sale price, 35c. 50c Best Balbriggan Underwear, 39c.

50c Jeans Drawers, with knitted insertion, 39c. 39c Poplin Underwear; sale price, 25c.

50c Madras and Cross Bar, vest only; sale price, 25c.

examination at Martinsville in the summer of 1911, and had access to the papers. A. C. Turner, chairman of the Smith River School Board, in Patrick County, in an affidavit, testified that he had heard Via say something about helping teachers through, which he considered suspicious.

Improper relations with a former teacher in Patrick County were the basis of the fourth charge.

Whether such charges be true or false, argued Mr. Carter, the State Board of Education could not afford to tives and a large majority of the Senate, but not intended to touch anything but the expenditure of a single small additional fund.

"I can assure the country that this item will neither limit nor in any way embarrass the actions of the Department of Justice. Other appropriations

The whole case, he said, was an exhibition of local spleen and venom of people who wanted the position. As to the pistol carrying charge, he argued that the warrant had been sworn out just a week before the board met, although the offense is alleged to have occurred last November.
Family feuds, he held, accounted for

Since the prosecution would not give it, he would give it himself, with the statement that he did not believe for a moment that there had been anything improper. Mr. Hooker gave her name and said she was well known and respected in Patrick County. Mr. Via, while staying in the hotel, went to her room at 16 o'clock in the morning to consult her about a book contract. The door into the hall was open, and employes of the hotel were passing constantly. Mr. Hooker introduced a number of affidavits from well-known men in Patrick County, including mininters, attorneys, and others, as to Mr. Via's general good character. Via's general good character.

that it belonged to his wife, and he was taking it to have a gifted—that it was not conceal—ing fixed—that i Spring fixed—that it was not conceal spring fixed—that it was not conceal spring fixed—that it was not conceal conclusive character to support its suspicions. He read into the record the afternoon hese receptives and Miss Byrd was pending.

Miss Cornelia T. Cooke is spending spring fixed—that it was not conceal conclusive character to support its suspicions. He read into the record the affidavit of John C. Shockley, cashier of the pages and convicted of carrying conficeated weapons, and that his appear was pending.

Miss Cornelia T. Cooke is spending spring fixed—that it was not conceal conclusive character to support its suspicions. He read into the record the padd district of John C. Shockley, cashier of the Patrick County Bank, that the papers purporting to be those of the examination were brought to him by was pending.

Schools.

Prosecution Closes.

Mr. Carter closed briefly for the prosecution. The pistol case was setting a bad example. In the Danville case it appeared that notice of the presence of Mr. Via in the woman's room was given the hotel clerk by the wife of the proprietor of the hotel, who roomed next door. In the Howell case the prosecution offered an affidavit of Mr. Adams, of Patrick County, who testified that Mr. Via had told him that it was so. Even though the charge were was so. Even though the charge were not true, Mr. Carter urged, the man who would say things to outsiders derogatory to the character of the teachers of the schools under his charge was not a fit man for the posi-tion of superintendent.

The three other candidates from Pat-rick County will be given a hearing today.

The contest in Nansemond between John K. Hutton, J. B. L. DeJarnette and Foy Van was taken up late in the afternoon. Mr. Corbitt appeared as at-torney for Mr. DeJarnette.

A "Teddy" Sympathizer.
"It has been reported to me," said
Attorney-General Williams, "that Mr. DeJarnette is not a Democrat."

Mr. Corbitt admitted that his client had voted for Taft in 1908, but contended that many good Democrats did the same in the stress of that campaign.

"I have heard," said Judge Williams, "that he didn't vote at all in 1912 be-cause he couldn't decide between Taft and Teddy. We want the facts if you can give them to us."

Mr. Corbitt admitted that his client

Mr. Corbitt admitted that his client did not vote in 1912, but considered him a good Democrat, and said that the members of the party committee in his section so considered him. He objected to Mr. Hutton because he was the partner of the Commonwealth's attorney of the county, and to Dr. Van because he was a practicing physician. Mr. Hutton was represented by Mr. Kendrick, of Suffolk. Mr. DeJarnette had once asked him whether he ought to vote for Colonel Holland in a Democratic congressional primary, saying that he was "a "Teddy" sympathizer."

Mr. DeJarnette insisted that it had been said jokingly. Mr. Corbitt, in closing the case for Mr. DeJarnette, said that the people of the county were satisfied with his politics; that Hutton was "kin to the courthouse ring," and that his election would create an of-that his election would create an of

The hearing will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock.

Special prices on White Canvas Shoes and Pumps.

And P No one appeared for Dr. Van.

COUNT IS MEMBER OF ROMANTIC FAMILY

Come Into Possession of Vast Estates.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. OUNT ERNEST WILDING VON KOENIGSBRUCK, who arrived in New York on Wednesday last, on board the hige German liner Im-perator, and who is making his headquarters at the Waldorf-Astoria, is a widower with three children, who also widower with three children, who also rejoices in the Italian title of Prince Di Rudali, and is one of the chamberlains of the King of Saxony, and a grand master of the ceremonies of the court of Dresden. He is incidentally, too, the ex-brother-in-law of one of the court of present and the most extraordings and the most extraordings. most extraordinary adventurers who have ever cut a swath on this side of the Atlantic, and who is now hiding somewhere in this country. The history of the count's family is of a somewhat romantic character. The founder of its furtures was a certain George Wilding, one of the thirteen children of an obscure clerk of the municipality of Leipsic. George Wilding was an exceedingly good-looking of the principal officers of the man and having living the control of the principal officers of the man and having living the control of the principal officers of the control of the principal officers of the control of the control of the principal officers of the control of the con man, and, having little or no money, he enlisted in the German Legion of the army of the King of Naples and of Sicily. After having worked his way up to the rank of lieutenant, he won, while in garrison at Palermo, the heart and the hand of the beautifi-daughter and sole heiress of the last Prince Butera di Radali, and his marriage to this woman, who by reason of her leveliness was nicknamed "the Venus of Palermo," took place in that

On her father's death, he found himself, through his wife, possessed of estates extending over several square miles in Sicily, with a stately palace Board of Education could not afford to put over women and children a man about whom respectable citizens under oath make such charges.

Denies All Charges.

Mr. Hooker, as attorney for Mr. Via, took up the charges one by one, saying that he did not believe a solitary charge, and that the respectable people of Patrick County did not believe them.

miles in Sicily, with a stately at Palermo, and in due course from the King of Naples the room t bear his father-in-law's title of Prince di Radali. As such he attended the coronation of Czar Nicholas I. of Rusof ambassador of the King of Naples. Dying without children in 1841, he bequeathed his Sicilian estates to brother, Ernest Wilding, who had served in the Hanoverian army up to the rank of major, and who was mar-ried to a Hanoverian weman of the name of Marlanne Gruner. tained from Ferdinand of Naples-the so-called "king Bomba"-the right to bear his brother's title of Prince di Radali, a then, taking up his residence in Saxony, purchased from Count Hohenthal the castle and estate of Koenigsbruck. This property, which has since passed out of the possession of the Wilding family, was sufficiently large and important to secure for Ernest Wilding a seat in the upper chamber of the Saxon Legislaupper chamber of the Saxon Legisla-ture, and by voting for the government, he obtained without much ficulty in 1857 the Saxon titl count, under the style of Count Wilding von Koenigsbruck.

bruck, now at the Waldert-Asteria his grandson and chief of the family He is not, however, as yet in posses sion of the great Italian estates, are owned by his maiden aunt, his maiden aunt, Countess Marie Wilding von Koenigsbruck and which will only come to him on her death. She had also all the German estates of the family, and until she dies the count will have no country seat or territorial possessions, all by her father, owing to his anger at bly the matrimonial misadventures of year, when he was expelled from the military academy at Bucharest for forgery, and forced to fice from Rumania to escape a worse fate. After having made Constantinople too hot betook himself to Athens, where, falling seriously ill,

Diamond Rings

We have a beautiful lot of Diamond Rings. Some real bargains, and would like to have you see them. They are certainly winners.

"The Diamond Merchant."

J. S. James, Jeweler and Optician. SEVENTH AND MAIN STREETS.

and CARRIAGES.

Von Koenigsbruck Has Not Yet he was conveyed to the hospital. There he attracted the attention of Queen Olga, during one of her almost dally visits to the institution, and interesting herself in his case, she furnished him with money on his recovery, to admit of his returning home to his parents. Of course, he did not go back to Rumania, but made his way to Paris, where he was soon engaged in new portant conviction dating from April 1890, when he was sentenced by the Paris courts to a term of four years penal servitude for forgery and for have ever cut a swath on this Madrid, Calcutta, Ostend, Vienna and Rome, have all been in turn the scene of his fradulent operations, as well as New York, Chicago, Boston and At San Francisco, finding that he > secret service of Austria, fraternized with them, and actually in-duced them to help him to shadow some absolutely innocent foreign tour-ists staying at the same hotel as him-self, whom he declared he had been instructed to watch in behalf of his government. He is very good looking, well educated and possessed of charming manners. brilliant conversationalist. with women. He used to go over here under the name of "Prince Lahovary" and of "Count" Manolescu, names which obtained here a too unenviable notoriety to admit of his bearing them since his return to the New World While in Italy he managed to scrape up an acquaintance with Countess Angelica von Koenigsbruck, who was traveling there with her widowed mother, a rather simple-minded old lady of Polish birth. In fact, he fasextent that he had no difficulty in persuading the younger of the two to confer upon him her hand and as he took the precaution to wed her under his patronymic of Manolescu, it was impossible to annul the marriage on was not long before his wife learned of his true character, and hastened to leave him, whereupen he character, and reverted to his former career of swindling tourists and tradesmen, and robbing hotels. Captured in the act of robbing one of the American guests of a Berlin hotel, the influence of his wife's relatives proved successful in securing a commutation of his sentence of two years' penal servitude to confinement in a lunatic asylum, as irresponsible. It was hoped by the Wilding von Koenigsbrucks that he would be kept there for the remainder of his life. But he managed to escape, and was traced across the At-lantic to New York, where he disappeared.

would be interesting to learn what has become of him since. if he was ingenious and fascinating enough to succeed is marrying into the house of Wilding von Koenigs-bruck, and to flourish for a considerable time in the various capitals of name, and sometimes under that of Prince Lahovary, in spite of his record as a swindler of international fame, and as an ex-convict, he has probathe matrimonial misadventures of the count and the matrimonial misadventures of the matrimonial misadventures of the wilding von Koenigsbruck.

Some eight or nine years ago the name of the Wilding von Koenigsbruck family came in for a good deal of publicity, owing to the unfortunate marriage of the count's sister. And the matrimonial misadventures of the same of the matrimonial misadventures of the same of the same of the count's sister. And the matrimonial misadventures of the same of the count's sister. gelica, to a Rumanian, of the name of renders it exceptionally easy for George Manolescu, to whom I have reswindlers to adopt names and titles She was foolisk enough of these nationalities, without much at fear of detection. ntil (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood

NO BODIES RECOVERED

Now Known That Nine Members of Party Were Drowned. Washington, June 23.—"Steamer Beaver—nine unaccounted for and un-doubtedly drowned," was the report of the War Department to-night on the capsizing of the government survey steamer yesterday on the Mississippi River near New Madrid, Mo. The list of missing: C. S. Williamson, Jr., en-gineer; J. W. McConnell, surveyor; J. C. Lamb, pilot: A. D. Coston, steam en-gineer; Owen Logan, stoker; H. Estes C. Brown, Philip Wray and H. S. Sherrill. laborers The report said that every effort was being made to recover the bodies, and that a diver had been engaged to make an examination of the steamer. The an examination of the steamer! The boat was at the bottom under eighteen

Former Vice-President Asks Republicans to "Forget and Forgive."

Omaha, Neb., June 23 .- "Forget and forgive was the keynote of a speech delivered by former Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks at a banquet tendered him by 300 Republican lead-ers of Nebraska. The gathering was fairly representative of both wings of the party in this State. Mr. Fairbanks lairly representative of both wings of the party in this State. Mr. Fairbanks, speaking of the future, said:

"Now and then we have heard it said that the Republican party has ended its career; that it is a party of the past, rather than of the future. Such prophecy is not new, we have heard it proclaimed in other days.
"Circumstances which unfortunately led to party division a year ago no longer exist. longer exist.

"Republicans, that is to say, those who believe in the political doctrine of the Republican party, are largely in the majority throughout the counthe majority throughout the country. I have no doubt whatever that the logic of events will bring them into co-operation again. This result cannot be accomplished by coercion, it must come naturally by the exercise of a spirit of tolerance and patience; old scores should be forgotten; as President McKinley happily put it— President McKinley happily put it-"It does not do to keep books in pol-

Fails from Train.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Suffolk, Va., June 23 - D. D. Askew, young white man, native of Suffolk, employed on the Virginian Railway, was badly hurt at Stever's Station today by falling from a train. He was rushed to St. Andrew's Hospital, Suffolk, on a hand car from Stever's Station, three miles away. His injuries, though serious, are not believed to be though serious, are not believed to be

Silver Novelties

Appropriate and inexpensive articles for birthdays, card parties.

Richmond's Leading Jewelers,

MAKES BRUTAL ATTACK ON BOY

Second and Brond Sts.

swindles, bringing him into conflict Negro Man Fractures Colored with the French police, his first im-Boy's Skull in Fit of Wanton Cruelty.

The police lines were flung out last night in the effort to run down and capture a large negro man who made a brutal assault upon an eleven-yearold colored boy, Cornelius Harris 550 Gilmer Street, yesterday after-noon about 4:30 o'clock. The boy was set upon by the negro without pro-vocation, and was beaten so badly about the head that physicians fear his skull may be fractured. The at-tack, which took place on Moore Street, between Oak and Harrison Streets, created intense feeling among the negroes living in the neighborhood. According to the story told the police by a negro woman who witnessed the affair, the colored boy was innocent of any action to have aroused the anger of the man, and the attack seems to have been an outburst of simple animal cruelty. The Harris boy was peddling fish on the street when he was stopped by the negro and asked the price. The figure named by the boy appeared to provoke the wrath of the man, who snatched a string of fish from the boy and threw it on the ground. When the boy protested, the man seized a rock and tested, the man seized a rock and simple animal cruelty. The Harris tested, the man seized a rock and struck him a vicious blow on the head, felling him like an ox.

He turned and run up a side street and no one went in pursuit. The city ambulance was called, and, after ex-amining the boy's wound, Dr. J. N. Williams had him removed home to Glimer Street. The ambulance sur-geon was unable to ascertain whether the skull was fractured or the wound is regarded as serious.

From the descriptions given, the police are led to believe that the assailant was a negro by the name of Benny Hampton, twenty-five years old. for whom a warrant is now out. earth for him list night proved futile.

Mrs. McReynolds Injured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hopkinsville, Ky. June 23.—Mrs.
Ilen McReynolds. seventy-six years
d, mother of Attorney-General James McReynolds, while alighting from carriage at the Louisville and Nashville depot here, fell and injured her hip. She continued her trip to her home at Elkton, but suffered greatly en route, and a Nashville physician has been summoned to make a thorough examination. It is feared her hip is injured.

Virginia Postmasters.

Washington, D. C., June 23.—The following appointments of Virginia postmasters have been confirmed by the Senate:

J. R. Williams, Brookneal; J. D. Crenshaw, Cambria; W. A. Broocks, Chase City; Lula M. Ray, Mount Jackson.

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole Oxfords, $2.25.

ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for

Incubators. N. Klein & Son., Inc

3 East Broad.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'S? Rountree-Sutherland-

Cherry Corporation WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET MILLINERY- Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

DETROIT GAS HANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS, DLD HICKORY FUNITURE SOLD ONLY BY

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness." Tel. Mad. 630.

"Specialists in Apparel for Women.

Broad at Second.